Dear Mr Bart,

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the Act”)

Further to your recent request for information held by King’s College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is not held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 28 June 2020 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

I am writing to request the following information to be made available by you under the Freedom of Information Act, regarding ratified cohort outcomes for second-year undergraduate students studying English (Q300) and English with Film Studies (Q3P3) at your institution from the academic years: 2017/2018; 2018/2019; 2019/2020. Could this information be sorted by:

- 1) The average weighted score and degree classification across all candidates studying the English course for each allocated academic year.*
- 2) A breakdown of each individual candidate's weighted average and degree classification in descending order (from the highest score to lowest score) for each of the allocated academic years.*

Our response

C-score calculation is not done in Year 2, but at the completion of the studies for the final award classification and it is worked out based on the overall Year 2 and 3 results.

This completes the university’s response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:

http://www.kcl.ac.uk/college/policyzone/assets/files/governance_and_legal/Freedom_of_Information_Policy_updated_Oct_20202011.pdf

In the event that you are not content with the outcome of your complaint you may apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal complaints procedure provided by King's College London.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:
