FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 – REQUEST: FOI 016-339

Dear Ms Beauchamp,

I can confirm that UCL holds information relevant to your Freedom of Information request and we are pleased to be able to provide this information to you.

(1) how many CCTV cameras there are on campus (in and outside);

1100 in total across all buildings, including student accommodation

(2) how many access control reader;

1547 in total across all buildings, including student accommodation

(3) what are the annual expenditures for security on campus (in-house and private security agencies, cameras, surveillance system, magnetic card system etc.) since 2006;

The current Security budget annual costs are approximately £6 million per annum, though we do not hold an exact figure.

(4) how much the university has spent for High Court Injunction banning sit-ins and occupations since 2006.

UCL has not spent any money on High Court Injunctions for the purpose of banning sit-ins and occupations since 2010 to date. I can advise however, that we have spent £24,444.34 on legal advice as a result of students occupying UCL premises.
