Dear Mr Elibank,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

Further to our letter dated 19 April, and in answer to your email dated 21 April, we have considered your request to receive an electronic copy of the information which may be released to you from the Manual of Protective Security.

Under section 11 of the Freedom of Information Act we are required to give effect to your preference in so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so. In this instance it is not reasonably practicable to comply with your preference as the information already exists in paper format and is ready to be posted to you; it would take some time and staff resource to prepare the document into a form that could be emailed to you.

If you will provide us with your postal address we will arrange for the information to be sent to you. I should also add that I do not propose to enter into further communication with you on this particular point. If you are not content with our handling of your request the next step is to ask for an internal review. The details of how to request a review were set out in our letter of 19 April.

Yours sincerely,

Y.E.

YASMINE EDWARDS
