Dear Ms Jones

Thank you for your request for information from the British Museum. Your request has been dealt with in accordance with the terms of the Freedom of Information Act (2000)(FOIA).

Your request, received in the Museum on 27 October 2022 was:

Dear Treasure Valuation Committee

I would be most grateful if you would provide me, under the Freedom of Information Act, the information requested below.

The details we require are:

1. Who is your social media management and monitoring tool supplier?
2. Start date & duration of framework/contract with the supplier
3. Actual spend on this contract/framework (and any sub lots), from the start of the contract to the current date
4. Who is the senior officer (outside of procurement) responsible for this contract?

The response to your request is:

We confirm that we do not hold the information requested as the Treasure Valuation Committee does not have a social media management and monitoring tool supplier.

Under our s.16 FOIA duty to offer you advice and assistance, we would explain that the Treasure Valuation Committee is an advisory Non-Departmental Public Body sponsored by the Department for Digital, Culture Media and Sport. It is completely independent from the British Museum, but the Department of Portable Antiquities and Treasure at the Museum provides it with administrative support.

This concludes the response to your request. We hope this information is helpful. If you are dissatisfied with this response and you wish to make a complaint about how we have handled your request, please contact the Resources Department in the first instance within 40 days of receipt of this response. The internal review of your complaint will be carried out by one of our

Deputy Directors who was not involved in the handling of your original request. If this is not possible then the review will be carried out by a member of the Museum staff at Head of Department level. You will normally be informed of the outcome of the internal review within 20 working days following the date of receipt of your complaint, although we may extend this time in certain circumstances. We will let you know should we need to do so.

If you remain dissatisfied with the way your request has been handled following the outcome of our internal review, you have a further right of appeal to the Information Commissioner. To make such an application please contact
