

Risk Assessment and Risk Management

Duration: 6
hours

Designed for: SCWB staff in health and social care settings working with individuals and requiring knowledge and understanding of risk and risk taking behaviour.

Aims :

This course will: This course will explore assessing and managing risk when working with individuals in varying settings.

Objectives:

By the end of this course you will:

- Define risk
- Explore positive risk taking
- Describe and apply risk principles and management planning
- Utilise ACC requirements
- Identify protection and non-protection type risk assessments
- Explore the legal framework
- Analyse Person Centred and Outcome focused approaches to risk assessment

Links:

- CLF:- Managing relationships: a focus on people who use services and their carers; working in partnership; empathy; dealing with conflict. Managing self: professional autonomy; lifelong learning; flexibility; confidence; resilience; organisational awareness.
- Changing lives
- SSSC code of practice
- ACC Policy – Risk Assessment and Positive
- Right Risk and Limits to Freedoms

If you need to book your place, please download an application form and return to Learning & Development Team, Social Care & Wellbeing