Dear Mr Salter

Thank you for your email of 29 August 2011 where you requested:

1. The case referred to BT, please include case reference numbers and date of referral.
2. The numbers of interference reports involving PLT, please include the body to which the reports were initially made, the bodies should include the BBC as they have handled reports of interference to domestic radio and tv since 30th June 2010.
3. The number of cases directly resolved by Ofcom employing their enforcement powers.
4. The number of cases resolved *without* referral to BT.

I am writing to advise you that, following a search of our paper and electronic records, we have established that the information you requested is not held by this Department.

Information relating to the overarching figures for cases of interference provided in a response from Mark Prisk was obtained from Ofcom, who hold the detailed information you have requested. If you have not already done so, then you may wish to contact Ofcom to request this information.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to the Department.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF

Yours sincerely,
