Dear Mr Cornin,

Thank you for your request of 14 January 2015 under the Freedom of Information Act (2000). Your exact request was:

"Can you provide me with information regarding the following:

1. Since March 2012, how many convicted UK child sex offenders have undertook the Department of Health programme of chemical castration?

2. Which UK prisons have undertook the chemical castration programme?

3. How many prisoners have volunteered for the chemical castration programme?"

The Department does not hold the information you have requested.

However, you may wish to contact NHS England (NHSE) and the National Offender Management Service (NOMS). Freedom of Information requests can be submitted to NHSE and NOMS at the following addresses:
