Dear Mr Hetherington

Environmental Information Regulations 2004

Thank you for your recent request to the Council. You asked to be provided with the following information:

Please could you provide me with the street lighting location data for your area, preferably in a shapefile format.

I was unable to find this online for your borough, but it is available for other boroughs such as Camden

(<https://opendata.camden.gov.uk/Environment/Camden-Street-Lighting/dfq3-8wzu>).

Please could you also provide:

 How many street lights have been changed to LEDs*

 The annual cost for running the street lights*

Response

I can confirm that the information requested is held by Royal Borough Kensington and Chelsea. I have detailed below the information that is being released to you.

Please could you provide me with the street lighting location data for your area, preferably in a shapefile format.

Current inventory of all street lighting assets (file attached)

 How many street lights have been changed to LEDs*
