University's response

1. Do you give bursaries to your students? Yes / No

The University offers a number of bursaries, examples of which are attached.

The University uses the term "Bursary" to distinguish awards offered on the basis of student need or circumstance from "Scholarships" which are awarded on the basis of academic potential or performance

2. If yes, how? Please give any examples of how they are given (i.e cash).

Bursary payments are made directly to the student's bank account and/or paid to the student's University accommodation account, depending on the nature of the bursary awarded.

3. Do you have a policy on this? Yes / No
