Dear Mr Robertson

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: 0743-18

Thank you for your email of 11th July 2018 asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked:

Please provide a list of student grant schemes like Chevening Scholarships, Great India Fund, and Great China Fund, known to the FCO and funded by taxpayers in the UK but provided to students outside the UK.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested.

I can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request.

Please find below the information that the FCO can release to you. We can only release information we hold at the FCO. Other government departments including Department for Education (DFE) and Department for International Development (DFID) may also have information relevant to your request. You would need to submit a separate request to them individually regarding any information they may hold.

The FCO is responsible for two international scholarship programmes available to eligible students outside the UK. These are:

1. The Marshall Aid Commemoration Commission, an Arm's Length Body of the FCO administers the Marshall Award offering postgraduate scholarships to study in the UK to US students. To find out more please visit: <http://www.marshallscholarship.org>

2. The Chevening Scholarship Award is an FCO programme and offers postgraduate scholarships to study in the UK to students in over 140 countries. To find out more please visit: <http://www.chevening.org/>.

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other reuse, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. To re-use Crown Copyright documents please consult the Open Government Licence v3 on the National Archives website.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

If you would like a review of our decision, or if you wish to make a complaint, please write to the Central FOI Unit, Foreign and Commonwealth Office, Room WH2.177, King Charles Street, London, SW1A 2AH. E-mail: foi-dpa.pmcs@fco.gov.uk. You have 40 working days to do so from the date of this letter.

You can apply directly to the Information Commissioner. However, the Information Commissioner will not normally make a decision unless you have first exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the FCO. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely,

The Scholarship Unit
Foreign and Commonwealth Office

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
