Dear Siri Hedreen,

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act")

Further to your recent request for information held by King's College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is not held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 30 November 2017 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

--student media budget (including grants, facilities, etc.) --total Student Union budget for societies / student activities

You further clarified your request by requesting:

--how much money has the KCLSU and/or KCL allocated for student media groups (including Roar News, KCL Radio, King's TV, and Strand Magazine) in the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 academic years --how much money has the KCLSU and/or KCL allocated in general for student societies/organisations in the 2016-2017 and 2017-2018 academic years

Our response

KCLSU is a separate organisation to King's College London, and are not subject to the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Accordingly, King's College London does not hold this information and is unable to provide you with the requested information.

However, to assist you with your enquiries we would direct you to the KCLSU Annual Report (found here https://www.kclsu.org/pageassets/about/KCLSU-Annual-Report-15_16-web.pdf).

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:

http://www.kcl.ac.uk/college/policyzone/assets/files/governance_and_legal/Freedom_of_Information_Policy_updated_Oct_%202011.pdf

In the event that you are not content with the outcome of your complaint you may apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal complaints procedure provided by King's College London.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Yours sincerely
