Dear Frank Zola,

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request which we received on 25 May 2012. You asked:

The Information Commissioners office has said you have disclosed all the information requested to them. However, you are now claiming a new exemption under Section 36. Please send me a copy of all the information you have sent to the ICO to substantiate the basis of the new exemptions. Also send copies of all correspondence and information sent to and received by the ICO about my complaint and appeal against your original refusal of this information request.

Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act allows us to direct you to information which is already accessible to you; the What Do They Know website details the correspondence that you have requested and can be viewed from the following link

If you have any queries about this letter please contact me quoting the reference number above.

Yours sincerely,

DWP Central Fol Team

Your right to complain under the Freedom of Information Act

If you are not happy with this response you may request an internal review by e-mailing freedom-of-information-request@dwp.gsi.gov.uk or by writing to DWP, Central Fol Team, Caxton House, Tothill Street, SW1H 9NA. Any review request should be submitted within two months of the date of this letter.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office for a decision. Generally the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted our own complaints procedure. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow Cheshire SK9 5AF www.ico.gov.uk
