Dear Connor A Gurney,

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request received on 16th May 2018:
You asked:

I understand that, for a short while, you were the department responsible for the maintenance of the Directgov website which has since been replaced by GOV.UK.

I, as such, request that you please provide with any information held on the technical infrastructure of Directgov (either when on the DotP content management system (CMS) or the Stellant CMS) under the Freedom of Information Act.

Following a search of our paper and electronic records, I have established that the information you requested is not held by this Department.

You may wish to redirect your request to Government Digital Services (GDS) who ran all Directgov activities when it transitioned over from DWP. The contact details are www.gov.uk/contact/foi

If you have any queries about this letter please contact me quoting the reference number above.

Yours,

DWP Digital, Parliamentary Business Focal Point
