Dear Mickey Carroll,

Re: Your request made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

We are writing to acknowledge receipt of your request for information in accordance with the provision of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. An appropriate officer at the Trust received this 12/01/2021.

We are currently processing your request and will advise you further in due course.

The Act establishes explicit timescales for the Trust to respond to you. Subject to your request and criteria described within the Act, we will then process your request within a maximum of 20 working days.

If under the terms of the Act it is found that the Trust cannot comply with your request, we will endeavour to fully explain the reasons for this.

We will write to you again shortly, but if there is anything you need further clarification on, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you,
FOI Team

Complaints: If you are dissatisfied with our response, you have the right to complain and ask for an internal review. In the first instance, your complaint will have to be addressed to the Trust, where it will be investigated within the timescales set out in the Freedom of Information Act 2000. We do attempt to turn reviews around within 20 working days, however, sometimes it can take us longer and we will advise you of that at the time. If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, you can then appeal to the Information Commissioners Office: <https://ico.org.uk/>
