Dear Mr Shekhavat

Thank you for your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000, relating to temporary accommodation.

I am afraid Kent County Council does not hold the information you have requested as in Kent, this is a function of the 12 district councils and Medway Council, a unitary authority, not the County Council. I have provided some links below which I hope will be of assistance not only in explaining who does what but also to help you contact the appropriate authorities.

<http://www.kent.gov.uk/about-the-council>
<http://www.kent.gov.uk/about-the-council/how-the-council-works/district-councils>

If you are unhappy with this response, and believe KCC has not complied with legislation, you have 40 working days from the date of this response to ask for a review. You can do this by following our complaints process; details can be found at this link <https://www.kent.gov.uk/about-the-council/complaints-and-compliments#tab-10> on our website. Please quote reference 19983357.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you can appeal to the Information Commissioner, who oversees compliance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Details of what you need to do, should you wish to pursue this course of action, are available from the Information Commissioner's website <http://ico.org.uk/concerns>

I will now close your request as of this date.

Yours sincerely

Mollie Redford
