27 April 2012

Our ref: FOI 2012/044

Dear U. Khanna,

Thank you for your email which was received by the University on 25 April 2012 requesting an internal review of the response to your Freedom of Information request (ref 044).

> " I am writing to request an internal review of University of Strathclyde's handling of my FOI request 'Tier 4'.
> [Under the Freedom of Information Act, you are liable to provide all the information as requested. You cannot shift the burden of information to some other organization body like UKBA. The information which has been requested are those information which should be always handy with the educational institution because these information needs to be reported to UKBA directly under the sponsorship duties. So I hope you would be able to reply me within the stipulated time."

University's response

The University has not carried out an internal review at this time because our letter of 11 April 2012 was intended as one of clarification, to determine how you wished us to proceed with your request. In the letter we offered assistance by advising you of the existence of UKBA as a means of obtaining the most comprehensive information

The University will then undertake an internal review and inform you of the result of that review.

All such requests for review should be made in writing, setting out in full the nature of the enquiry to which it pertains. A request for review should be submitted within 40 working days of either the date on which you received a response from the University or the date by which you should have received a response under the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, whichever is the later.

Please note that links provided to information available elsewhere are intended to assist Freedom of Information access. Requests for information held by other public authorities and any complaints regarding access to such information should be addressed to that authority. These review procedures relate only to information which is directly under the control of the University of Strathclyde.

If the University is unable to resolve any complaint, you can contact the Scottish Information Commissioner, the independent body which oversees the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 – contact details:
