Dear sir / madam,

Thank you for your enquiry of 17 January. This falls to be dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

It is not clear, from your email, exactly what information you require. To help us to deal with your request properly, I would be grateful if you could clarify it.

You requested

I was little curious about how organised the Home Office is, there must be a time frame in which the HO (Home Office) provides the BRP after a successful court appeal. As in my case, my appeal was successful and decision was made in September 2016 in my favour. 2 weeks after the decision, I was told on my reporting that the HO is not appealing the court's decision and I have to wait for the BRP. It is more than 14 weeks now since the decision was made and no correspondence has been received from the HO's side.

However, I am not asking about the details of my case but in the similar circumstances what is the time scale or time frame for issuing a BRP if there is one.

So my formal question is, If the HO decides not to appeal the court's decision; 1. What is the time frame under which the HO issues a BRP?

2. What is the process from 'the decision to not appeal against the court directions' to the 'issuance of a BRP'?

Can you please confirm what BRP you are referring to what application did you submit ? BRP's are issued for different types of Immigration applications and in order to deal with your request we need to establish what BRP you are referring to.

Once you provide this information, we will aim to send you a full response to your letter within twenty working days.

Yours sincerely
