Dear Mr Humphries,

Re: Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 – Request for Information

Thank you for your email which was received by the University on 11 October 2010 timed 21:04 hours, requesting the following information:

- a. The total paybill for all staff employed by the University in the academic years 2009/2010.
b. A breakdown of that paybill by category: Teaching, administrative/clerical, technical, and any other relevant categories.

University's Response

Please find the University's response in Appendix A attached. Please note, the figures provided in Appendix A are currently draft figures for financial year 2009/10, which will be presented to University Court to be approved and signed off in December 2010.

The supply of documents under the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 does not give the applicant or whoever receives the information any right to re-use it in such a way that might infringe the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (for example, by making multiple copies, publishing or otherwise distributing the information to other individuals and the public). The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (Consequential Modifications) Order 2004 ensured that Section 50 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 ("CDPA") applies to the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 ("FOISA").

Breach of copyright law is an actionable offence and the University expressly reserves its rights and remedies available to it pursuant to the CDPA and common law. Further information on copyright is available at the following website:
