Dear Sir/Madam,

Your Request

With regards to the announcement from the Government, linked below, in relation to the award of the Towns Fund I would like to request the following information.

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/town-deals-full-list-of-101-offers>

1. A copy of the fund application to the Cabinet Office.
2. A copy of the supporting business case.
3. A copy of the intended programme for the scheme.
Crawley Borough Council's Response
Response to follow.
4. A list of the legal, management and property consultants you were appointed to support the production of the application.
Crawley Borough Council's Response
No external consultants were appointed for the production of the application.
5. Details of any public consultations that have been held.
Crawley Borough Council's Response
Response to follow.
6. The name of the lead representatives for each local authority involved in the scheme.
Crawley Borough Council's Response
Nigel Tidy was recruited as the Towns Fund Programme Officer earlier this year.
7. Will the development include any involvement from the private sector and have any private developers been involved to date?
Crawley Borough Council's Response
Membership of the Town Deal Board which includes representatives of the private sector is shown on the investcrawley.co.uk website here. We have not yet developed the full business cases each project, but future private sector involvement is anticipated.
8. If Crawley Borough Council is not the local authority who submitted the fund application, please can you confirm the local authority that did submit the fund application?
Crawley Borough Council's Response
N/A
