Dear Ms. Fouracre,

I am writing to confirm that the University has now completed its search for the information which you requested on 16 January.

You requested the following:

- Does your university currently deliver training on sexual violence to staff and/or students?

No

If YES:

Is this training mandatory?

Who is invited to attend the training?

How is the training delivered (e.g. online, in-person seminar, workshop, etc)? What is the completion rate of the training?

N/A

If NO:

Has there been any training offered in the past, and if so, what? Is any training planned for the future?

Training for staff is planned in the future under a project being led by one of the University's researchers. You can find more information on this here: <http://www.brunel.ac.uk/news-and-events/news/articles/University-staff-trained-to-support-victims-of-sexual-violence#>

We believe we have provided you with all the information you requested. However, if you are unhappy with the way the University has handled your request, or with the information you have received, you may ask for an internal review. You can do this by sending a letter to:

Secretary to Council
Brunel University London
UXBRIDGE
UB8 3PH

or by sending an e-mail to foirequests@brunel.ac.uk.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
