Dear Mr Brown

I am writing further to my colleague's e-mail of 6 September 2013, about your request for information about the Home Office's twitter messages about arrests of suspected immigration offenders on 1 August 2013. Your request is being handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I regret that we were unable to send you a full response to your request by 4 October 2013 as stated in that letter. I would like to apologise on behalf of the Department for this delay, but I can assure you that we are dealing with your request and we will send you a full reply as soon as we can. We now aim to send you a full reply by 14 November 2013.

If you have any questions about the handling of your information request in the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

D Pottinger
