We write to respond to your recent Freedom of Information enquiry.

Enquiry

I would like to request the following information for your Medicine A100 Undergraduate Course, for the UCAS admissions cycles between 2021-2023 (inclusive).

2021

1. What was the lowest UCAT score achieved by an overseas offer-holder in 2021?
2. What was the highest UCAT score achieved by an overseas offer-holder in 2021?
3. Was there a UCAT threshold for international students to be invited to interview, and if so, what was this threshold?
4. Was there a UCAT threshold for international students to be given an offer, and if so, what was this threshold?

2022

1. What was the lowest UCAT score achieved by an overseas offer-holder in 2022?
2. What was the highest UCAT score achieved by an overseas offer-holder in 2022?
3. Was there a UCAT threshold for international students to be invited to interview, and if so, what was this threshold?
4. Was there a UCAT threshold for international students to be given an offer, and if so, what was this threshold?

2023

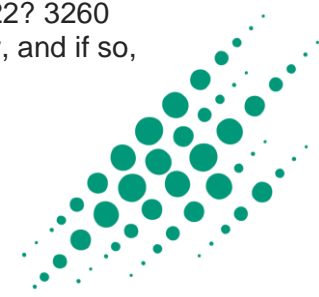

1. What was the lowest UCAT score achieved by an overseas offer-holder in 2023?
2. What was the highest UCAT score achieved by an overseas offer-holder in 2023?
3. Was there a UCAT threshold for international students to be invited to interview, and if so, what was this threshold?
4. Was there a UCAT threshold for international students to be given an offer, and if so, what was this threshold?

Response

For admissions data, we hold a complete set of records for 2 years after application. Therefore, we are unable to provide data for admissions cycles before 2022, as the information is not held. The information included in this response refers to the 2022 and the 2023 admissions cycles only. For the remainder of the request we are applying a S21 exemption "information that is reasonably accessible to the requester by other means".
