Dear J. Morris

I refer to your request where you asked:

"Please send me any written information the Cabinet Office holds which shows that the UK is a legal entity or what type of entity it is?
Please send me the written information as to which legal entity the Cabinet Office gains its authority from?
Please also clarify who signed the last response.
I wish a proper response under the FOI Act.
It is not appropriate to attempt to classify this request as invalid under the act. If you do not have the information then state this, not attempt to invalidate a legitimate request.
If you will not reply legitimately, please then take this as a request for an internal review"

I am writing to advise you that following a search of our paper and electronic records, I have established that the information you requested is not held by the Cabinet Office.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact the FOI team. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request or wish to request an internal review, you should write to:

Helen Ewen
Cabinet Office

email: foi-team@cabinetoffice.gov.uk

You should note that the Cabinet Office will not normally accept an application for internal review if it is received more than two months after the date that the reply was issued.

If you are not content with the outcome of your internal review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by Cabinet Office. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House

Yours sincerely
