Dear [REDACTED]

I am sorry you have had to write to me again; I had hoped that by now some progress would have been clearly evident. Thank you for patiently setting out the latest 'events' in your locale. Please do not assume that the slow responses reflect any lack of interest on the City Council's behalf. We do not want to see any environmental decline in the area and as I wrote to you earlier, it is a pity that the actions of a minority impact this way.

I can confirm that the points you raised were considered at the UMBEG meetings, including the [REDACTED] Actions were agreed and matters delegated to the relevant officers in other departments. Core to progress was establishing [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Also on the agenda was the issue of [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I am disappointed by the lack of progress on [REDACTED] and related matters and I have therefore pressed again on this - as has the Lead Member, Councillor Cook. I hope I can soon give you more concrete reassurance.

Regards,
John.
