Dear Ric Lander,

Request for Information under Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002

Thank you for your email which was received by the University on 09 June 2021 requesting the following information:

Since they are not on the web page (<https://www.strath.ac.uk/whystrathclyde/universitygovernance/committees/universitycourt/earlieragendaspapers/>) could you please provide "agenda and papers" of University Court meetings held after June 2020?

University's response

Since they are not on the web page (<https://www.strath.ac.uk/whystrathclyde/universitygovernance/committees/universitycourt/earlieragendaspapers/>) could you please provide "agenda and papers" of University Court meetings held after June 2020?

The information requested can be accessed from the following location:

<https://www.strath.ac.uk/whystrathclyde/universitygovernance/committees/universitycourt/earlieragendaspapers/>

Therefore, although the University of Strathclyde does hold the information that you have requested, the information is exempt under section 25 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, as it is otherwise accessible.

The University will then undertake an internal review and inform you of the result of that review.

All such requests for review should be made in writing, setting out in full the nature of the enquiry to which it pertains, and stating why you are dissatisfied with the response. A request for review should be submitted within 40 working days of either the date on which you received a response from the University or the date by which you should have received a response under the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, whichever is the later.

Please note that links provided to information available elsewhere are intended to assist Freedom of Information access. Requests for information held by other public authorities and any complaints regarding access to such information should be addressed to that authority. These review procedures relate only to information which is directly under the control of the University of Strathclyde.

If the University is unable to resolve any complaint, you can contact the Scottish Information Commissioner, the independent body which oversees the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002. A complaint to the Commissioner must be made within 6 months from the date of the University's response.

The Commissioner has an online appeal service which can be accessed via www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal.

Alternatively, you can contact the Scottish Information Commissioner via the following methods:
