Dear J Carter

Freedom of Information Request Reference FOI-1095175 Carter

Thank you for your request dated 18 August 2017 in which you asked the Department of Health (DH):

*"Could you please provide a full list of hospitals in the UK along with the NHS trusts which are responsible for each one.
It would be great if you could provide this as an excel file. "*

Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

The Department holds some information relevant to your request. However, as the information held by the Department is in the public domain, we will under section 21 of the FOI Act (information accessible to the applicant by other means) refer you to the published source.

A list of NHS Trusts in England is available on the NHS Choices website here:

<http://www.nhs.uk/servicedirectories/pages/nhstrustlisting.aspx>

The information on the NHS Choices website is provided by NHS Digital and they may publish lists of trusts in other formats, which may include other information. You can contact NHS digital via enquiries@nhsdigital.nhs.uk . Please note that the above information relates to the NHS in England only.

Details of how to contact the health administrations of Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland are available here:

Wales: <http://wales.gov.uk/topics/health/?lang=en>

Scotland: <http://www.scotland.gov.uk/Topics/Health>

Northern Ireland: <http://www.dhsspsni.gov.uk/index.htm>

If you are not satisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to appeal by asking for an internal review. This should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to the address at the top of this letter, or the email address at the end of this letter.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of your internal review, you may complain directly to the Information Commissioner (ICO) who may decide to investigate your concerns. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have already appealed our original response, and received our internal review response. The ICO will not usually investigate concerns where there has been an undue delay in bringing it to their attention. You should raise your concerns with them within three months of your last meaningful contact with us.

The ICO can be contacted at:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF
