Subject: RE: Review of the consequences of additional private drugs for NHS care

Dear [REDACTED]

I'm assuming that you've got the details, as your name appears on a list of attendees that has just been sent to me. Let me know if there's a problem - otherwise I look forward to meeting you this evening.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

Many thanks for this. I believe that Mike is attending a breakfast launch event for this as he is unable to make the evening launch - but I would be happy to come along on the 16th to hear the debate. We will of course be reading the paper carefully as part of the evidence base to help shape Mike's final recommendation to SofS.

Grateful if you could pass me on the relevant details.

Best wishes,

[REDACTED]

Review of the consequences of additional private drugs for NHS care

Dear review team,

Over recent weeks KPMG has been working with Charles Clarke MP (former Home Secretary and Secretary of State for Education) to produce a paper on user charges in the UK public sector. The paper covers a number of sub-sectors, including health, and it examines the political, economic and ethical arguments for and against "co-payment". The paper is in its final stages and will be launched at an event in our London Office on the evening of 16 July 2008. If this is of interest to you, you would be very welcome to attend the launch. The subject matter is highly relevant to Professor Richards' review.

Kind regards,
