Dear Mr Richardson,

Individual Rights Request - FOI2019/00391

I am writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited ("Post Office") on 29 August 2019, which I am dealing with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA").

In your email you have requested the following information:

I would like to know who is postmaster of post office on yarmouth road. caister on sea . Norfolk

I can confirm that we do hold some information relating to your request. However, Post Office believes that the information is the personal data relating to a third party.

In this respect, we rely on the exemption contained in section 40(2) of the FOIA, concerning personal information.

Personal Information

Post Office believes that the name of the subpostmaster is exempt under section 40(2) concerning personal information. This is because we believe the information requested to be the personal information of the individual; Post Office considers that the individual would have an expectation that this information would not be disclosed into the public domain.

Public Interest

Post Office acknowledges the general public interest in transparency and accountability. However, disclosure of personal information would not serve the interests of the public as it does not relate to the provisions of public services or decisions directly affecting the public.

However I can advise that the Post Office is managed by Hari Supermarket Ltd.

If you have any queries about this response, please contact me. Do remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

I hope the information I have provided on this occasion is useful, however if you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address below stating your reasons for your internal review request.
