Dear Ms Treharne Oakley

I am writing in response to your emails received in November 2013 in which you expressed dissatisfaction with our handling of the above-mentioned requests for information. Your complaints have been passed to me for review.

Having reviewed your requests and our responses I am satisfied that we have acceded to your requests to the fullest extent possible. For the avoidance of any doubt I can confirm that where relevant:

- (a) Ms Helm's application of s40(2) FOIA 2000 in relation to your request was correct; and
- (b) We have already explained our approach towards the release of relevant material evidence between the parties involved in an investigation. I can confirm that the explanation you have received accurately reflects our approach and there is nothing further I can add.

That concludes my review of this matter. If you consider that I have not dealt with your information request properly you can raise the matter with the Information Commissioner. He can be contacted at:

The Information Commissioner's Office
