Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks for your email.

When the original appointment letters were sent out to everyone, the appointments were for an initial 6 month period as that was what was decided as part of the original selection process. The Group members then decided that this wasn't a sufficient appointment length to be able to get work done and so the initial term was extended to 12 months from October. Clearly, the Group will need to discuss any re-appointment process nearer the time as an agenda item.

Hope that clarifies things for now. See you at the meeting later.

Please clarify.
