

Consent to Share Information

MAXIMUS is working with Jobcentre Plus customers on behalf of the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) to help these customers to increase their skills to help them find and keep work. MAXIMUS may claim a payment from DWP for every Jobcentre Plus customer who finds work while or after participating in a programme.

To claim a payment from DWP, MAXIMUS may need to confirm details of your employment

To validate these claims DWP may need to confirm details of your employment. Where appropriate, this may involve confirming details with each of your employers.

To achieve this MAXIMUS, DWP and your future employers need your consent to share information about you as follows:

Stage 1: MAXIMUS will give your name and national insurance number to your future employer

Stage 2: Your employers will use your name and national insurance number to identify you, so that they can confirm to MAXIMUS some or all of the following information:

- The date you began each period of your employment
- Whether your employment is continuing
- If not continuing, the date each period of your employment ended
- Whether you were employed during a specific period
- The number of hours you worked each week
- The amount of your earnings each week
- Your employee number or other unique identifier

Stage 3: To validate payment claims from MAXIMUS, DWP may contact your employer using your name and national insurance number to ask for the information listed at stage 2. It will use this information to:

- Check if the information given to it by MAXIMUS is correct
- Evaluate the programme

DWP will store your information securely for audit purposes

If you do not give consent, this will not affect your entitlement to participate in the programme, or any job offer or employment obtained. You can write to MAXIMUS at any time to withdraw your consent and this will not affect your placement on the programme or any employment or offer of employment made.
