

Work Search Reviews

Claimant attends a Work Search Review following a suspension

1. 1. When the claimant attends a Work Search Review (WSR) following a suspension and there is no longer a doubt about whether they have met the availability and actively seeking conditions, you should take a labour market signature for the period following the suspension up to the date they attend.