Dear Dragutin Popovic

Ref: FOI2019/00292 &
FOI2019/00293

Freedom of Information Act 2000: HM Treasury transparency (FOI)

Thank you for your two enquiries of 8 January 2019, which we have considered under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOI Act).

You asked for the following information:

"Please provide a Declaration confirming that the United Kingdom Government has been desolved and as such is declared bankrupt and insolvent"

And:

"Please provide a Written Statement for Abolition of Direct Taxes by British Constitution."

The FOI Act gives applicants a right of access to recorded information held by a public authority. It does not require us to create information, in order to answer a request. I can confirm that HM Treasury does not hold the information within the scope of your request.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us. Please quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Information Rights Unit

Your right to complain under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

If you are not happy with this reply, you can request a review by writing to HM Treasury, Information Rights Unit, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ or by emailing us at the address below. Any review request must be made within 2 months of the date of this letter.

Email: foirequests@hmtreasury.gov.uk

It would assist our review if you set out which aspects of the reply concern you and why you are dissatisfied.

If you are not content with the outcome of the review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Commissioner will not make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by HM Treasury which is outlined above.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF (or via their website at: <https://ico.org.uk>).
