Dear G Webber

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request – 171010014

Thank you for your request received on 10 October, in which you asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

Please could you publish, under the FOIA, an organogram for the JCIO, which will include the names and job titles of senior staff and the job titles of junior staff along with their reporting relationships.

Your request has been handled under the FOIA.

I confirm that the MoJ holds the information you have requested. I have provided the information in the attached document.

Please note that there is one senior civil service post in the JCIO.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied with this response, you have the right to request an internal review by responding in writing to one of the addresses below within two months of the date of this response.
